Athens, June 27, 2014

Dear Mr. President,

I would like to warmly thank you for your video address and for your kind words to the participants in the recent COSAC plenary meeting that took place in Athens from 15-17 June as part of the parliamentary dimension of the Hellenic Presidency of the Council of the European Union.

At the conference, national parliamentarians from across the EU and members of the European Parliament held robust and constructive debates on democratic legitimacy and European leadership, ways to address the social deficit in the EU, employment strategy, the challenges faced by the EU and, in particular, the crisis in Ukraine.

In the Contribution, COSAC welcomes the expressed will of the Heads of EU states to place growth and job creation at the top of their priorities and expresses its satisfaction over the first signs of a recovery in economic activity in the European Union throughout 2013, in terms of both productivity and competitiveness.

Please find enclosed the Contribution of the LI COSAC adopted by consensus at the plenary meeting.

Please accept, Mr. President the assurances of my highest consideration.

Ioannis Tragakis
A' Vice-President of the Hellenic Parliament
