

At the COSAC Troika Meeting in Södertälje, February 6, it was decided that a working group dealing with the question of national parliaments and the European Union should be formed. The result of a questionnaire concerning the creation of a working group that was sent out by the Assemblée Nationale and the Sénat before Christmas shows that 15 delegations are in favour of creating a working group